My dear Mr. Muir:-

I have forwarded you one of my little booklets which has just been published, and sincerely hope you will like it. I took the liberty of using a quotation from one of your books, one I have always thought particularly beautiful.

If after reading the booklet, you can speak well of it, I will be more than grateful for a brief testimonial.

This is the first thing of the kind I have ever done, and if this proves a success, which it bids fair to do, as I have already sold several hundred copies, I will try something bigger.

I was surprised to hear of Helen's marriage. I hope she will have much happiness. Will try and write to her soon.

Hoping you are well, and that we may have the pleasure of seeing you soon in Pasadena, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Helen Lukens Gant
