cherishing thought
James Hay was able to write us for New Year we were so pleased to see his hand writing for he had been ill
with bronchitis.

We hope your Wanda & her family keep very well & that you have good news from Helen Mother joins me in kindest love

Yours affectly

Dear Cousin

I think I must write & tell you what was done with the extra money you sent for this Xmas
of course £5 went its usual way for coal etc for the poor,
I went to the Market
& saw Mr & Mrs

04937

Borland^[2] & arranged with them to give the Xmas Tea to the Women
at the Mission Hall
& the rest of the L.S. Mr Borland has given to sick & needy.

I went to the Shore Hall & saw the tea take place Mr Borland told them who they were indebted to for their nice tea I am sure your kindness has cheered

many a heart & bright
many a home
Mr Borland said
I was to tell you how much your kindness had been appreciated.

Mother is able to be downstairs every day for which I am very thankful & now we have got past
the darkest days which is always a
