Very dear John Muir —

The engraver has
the inscription and it will be only a few days before Charles Jean has her plate — and I hope
not long before you
see her with it.

Your letter with the added gift all cozily tucked inside followed the inscription on. Thanks and thanks again. It came for her very important six months old birthday.

Now that the sun has come back we may get a new picture.

I am on my way to hear ^{of} ^{the} lectures of the "Peace" course that Doctor Jordan is giving. He has an assistant who presents the historical side - that is what happens this morning.

And I can hardly leave
"Marie Claire" that quite marvelous little book by the French dress maker Marguerite Audoux - The freshest, most perfectly written account of her early life.
You would love the pictures she gives of her impressions of rain and trees and sheep and things -
Is Helen still with you?
much love always from your Kellogg
