

1911-03-03

Letter from John Muir to [Robert Underwood] Johnson, 1911 Mar 3.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [Robert Underwood] Johnson, 1911 Mar 3." (1911). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6023.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6023>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Answer
3/8/11

J

Martinez March 3, 1911

My dear Mr Johnson:

I'm very sorry you are in the grip of the miserable grip. I too have suffered an attack of it this winter & have hardly yet recovered.

Mr Scott promised to restore the gilt on the Writings of Cal., add 8 new illustrations & raise the royalty to 15 per cent. So far good but I'm far from being en rapport with him in regard to the Forerunner book. As to the Century Company doing as well by me as any other publisher in America my 17 years experience with it tells a very different story. But be assured I'm not going to let you break your heart about the book & will try hard to make some arrangement that will be satisfactory. With all good wishes dear Johnson I am ever faithfully your friend
John Muir