Dear Mr. Muir

When Dr. Davidson
& I were staying at Dunbar Mausse last Summer I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. & Miss Lunan who were very accisious I should see you when you came again to Los Angeles & tell you of their welfare. I would feel very pleased & honoured if you would come over some day & have lunch with - my husband & me during your stay here.

We seem to know you already through having your photograph taken last-year with - Mr. Carnegie & my Brother-in-law, & as Dunbar Maule is the home of my Sister - it does seem as if we ought to know each other. At the same time I hesitate to ask you to add to your numberless friends when you have come here to rest. If you do not feel equal to coming over here to see us perhaps you would telephone -

With - kind regards

Believe me
Yours very truly

Helen F. Davidson
