

1911-03-23

Letter from John Muir to Frances Browne, 1911 Mar 23.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to Frances Browne, 1911 Mar 23." (1911). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6036.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6036>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[Original letter returned to Mr. Waldo R. Browne]

Los Angeles, Cal., March 23, 1911.
325 West Adams Street.

Mr. Francis Browne,
Menlo Park,
Cal.

My dear Mr. Browne:-

As you say, formal goodbyes don't matter much, for those who love are never parted. I am sure you will have a hearty glowing time with blessed Anderson. If I were to obey my heart I should go flying to you through the midst of all work, and high above all reason, but you know that I am with you all the time anyhow.

I expect to go east about the middle of next month. John Burroughs, I think, intends to start back to the Hudson and Slabsides on the 5th of April. He and I had the pleasure of dining with Roosevelt in Pasadena day before yesterday - a very brilliant and in every way Rooseveltian affair.

Now I hope you both will rise above all terrestrial worries and cares of every sort into the best of God's upper regions, and assuring you that I am always with you, and wishing you God's luck, I am,

Ever faithfully,

JOHN MUIR

06894