Color. I was delighted to have your last letter, and was very much interested by all you said of your writings and word pictures if you will stay in that now distant west it's a real pleasure to keep in touch with you that way.
 And now that I have your lovely photographs
 - and on my desk where

Dear Mr. Lewis:-
 Having seen
 California sunshine to death in Boston I have come this far Southward to get warmed through. And then we are rewarded by watching the flocks of shrubs and wish. I shall find the most perfect amusement of talking with you. I want you so much for leisure. I shall hold at Frederick, till you come to take me on the Amazon trip!

 This morning I saw Dr. Dall & Dr. Fisher who were with us in Alaska. Tomorrow I shall see Dr. Merriam and Mr. Evans in Washington & shall hope to have a glimpse of all our "H.A. P's" who live here. How wonderful these halibut cruising, & mountain climbing & glacier snowing days were!
 I count the days now until I can see Atlantic monthly appears. I so enjoy knowing of your scribbling.
 Every time I think of your taking your cloths to the fair I smile with amusement. Do stay in the Hooker garret long enough to describe all such boyish pranks & ambitions!

I gave the Harriett and your messengers the other day & they were pleased to pass them. They are all well.

Wolters joins me in love with the hope that he will see you fast or later before long -

Heartily,

Betty Correll.
