Dear Mrs Hooker
What a fine heart-bath you are having! When I returned from the station Mr Hooker was entertaining Mr Burroughs & party with the star photographs millions of suns full of unquenchable radium. Nevertheless the weather here is far from warm, though as you know ~~there~~ are spots here & there that never grow cold. Sunday I went to Pasadena with ^{my} friends the Sellers intending to stay only a day, but staid a week to try to get some Yosemite out of me & some sound sleep in. Was successful. The second morning slept like death & had to be awakened about 9 o' clock.

Mr O Melviny is coming Saturday to take me through the park.

Remember me to all who love you Faithfully John Muir

All goes as well as usual at 325. Buy the newspapers that Hitch Hiker is taking to cook us many more hard battles. No more of worry as well as some work
