Dear Mr Keith. I've been hoping to see you ever since I got back from the South but you had always left your studio when I called Anyhow you must know that I am always with you in sympathy & always glad at every whisper of good news of your gaining however slowly in health.

I saw Mr Harmon today who said you had a restless night. Never be downy. The pictures you are now painting seem to me better than ever

God bless your brave old friend so with all my heart I pray

John Muir
