to N.Y., there to remain until about the end of June when I go to New Haven for a day or two at Yale. Then I hope to get off to S.
America. In the meantime I'll try to finish my Yosemite book in Mrs. Harriman's guest

I had a great time in

Darling Helen:

I'm so glad to be able to share in your gladness through your letters, & never am weary in thanking Heaven for your health & little boy's health & Buel's Long may you all
