Dear Helen I've been getting your cheery letters regularly & am so glad you & the little boy are so well. You must teach the sturdy fellow to take gradually less nourishment from you & more of other baby food lest you become enfeebled. I'm so sorry to hear of Mrs Funk's illness & fondly hope she may soon with proper care recover.
I've had a great time in Washington & in Boston innumerable dinners etc & have bravely weathered them all & feel fine. The above address will not be changed until I leave for Brazil, which will not be before the first of July. It is the residence of Mrs Harrison

Darling Helen,

I've been getting your cheery letters regularly & am so glad you & the little boy are so well. You must teach the sturdy fellow to take gradually less nourishment from you & more of other baby food lest you become enfeebled. I'm so sorry to hear of Mrs. Funk's illness & fondly hope she may soon with proper care recover.

I've had a great time in Washington & in Boston, innumerable dinners etc & have bravely weathered them all & feel fine. The above address will not be changed until I leave for Brazil, which will not be before the first of July. It is the residence of Mrs. Harriman where I am royally entertained & feel at home. The autobiography will probably be out next fall. The publishers like it very much. I hope to get the Yosemite book finished before I sail.

Ever my Darling your devoted father
