Dear Papa:-

Just a line to let you know we are well, then I am going to take this up to the post office on horseback. It is a lovely morning after our wild sand-storm of yesterday, and I will enjoy the ride. Little son is asleep after his breakfast, and I will bathe him when I get back. He is so well and so happy . He is always ready to smile and daily grows brighter.

I am fine as can be. Euel will be home this afternoon from Los Angeles. Everything as usual on the ranch.

Lovingly

Helen.
