kind. I'm trying to finish the book on Yosemite before I set out for the other America. I got a copy of "My First Summer" from the publishers two or three days ago. It looks well - in a day week or so it will be in the stores.

I'm so glad your little boy is thriving & <sup>so</sup> dear a child. I haven't heard from Wanda since I left California.
Give my kindest regards to Bud & his mother & that little girl. Devotedly your father

Darling Helen,
Your letter recd yesterday, telling our dear Seller's death Sunday, made me sad & lonely. I suppose you know that J. D. Hooker the friend in our greatest need was taken violently ill the day of dear Seller's death & died Wednesday evening. And Keith too gone. I wonder if leaves feel lonely when they see their neighbors falling Mrs Harriman is exceedingly
