[May 1911]

Rochester N. Y.

Dear Mrs Hooker,

It seems awfully
long since I had a word from you direct.

I'm now on my way to Boston after more than a week in Washington on Hutch Hetchy affairs, an awful strenuous
week full of dizzying
speeches, dinners, receptions, junctions etc. fit to kill. At Boston I want to arrange for books - then return to Mr. Harriman's until the middle of June will be <sup>of Mrs E. H. Harriman</sup> No 1, East sixty ninth St.

Trusting to hear from you soon however briefly
I am ever faithfully
John Muir
