The weather is not oppressively hot in the spacious Harriman
mansions.

I saw Mr. H's doctor who winked so much encouragement when you were so sick in
the Los Angeles
Hospital. He was glad to hear
you were now
so merrily well.

Ever devotedly

Darling Helen,

You have been up
here in wonderfully fine Catskills at the magnificent summer home of the Harriman a few days & am going back to the city house this evening.

I have been at work
on your book.

Received your fine cherry June 5 letter 3 days ago

All goes well. Though I see lots of work ahead
