BROOKLYN, N. Y.

2nd June 1911

My dear Friend Min.

I was so pleased to get your letter

Thursday I shall be obliged to go out of Town and will not return until about 9. P. M.

Friday I should like very much to see you. I know you have much to engage your attention but I should be very glad if you will make my home your home until you go South.

It is only a short trip to Union Square
