But with her nothing is ever regarded as serious.

I suppose the letters returned to Martinez were a few forwarded from New York to Arden where I'm not had they been in Mrs Harriman's care
I would have received them.

I'm now at Professor Osborn's summer home working on the end of my Yosemite book hoping to finish it before leaving for S. Am. Address My letters ~~at~~

GARRISONS ON HUDSON, N. Y.

Dear Wanda Tom & boys I was very glad to learn you were all in good health. Have just had a letter from Helen saying she had to go to Los Angeles to have medical advice for her eyes. They were causing great pain. She is also suffering from cold in her head from sleeping in a blast of hot wind.
This she says is not serious

Write to Helen and find out just how she is.
 She expects to go to Bear Valley in San Bernard
 - in Mountains for a month or two. But her letters will be forwarded from Daggett.

I suppose you've heard I've been highly honored at Yale I'm not sure that I've spelled Louis's name correctly.
 Write and tell me. I refer to enclosed dedication.
 Ever devotedly
 John Muir
