Paterson, July 7, 1911

My dear Mr. Meier,
For I wish

I could go with you up the Amazon over the Andes! But my summer is marked out. I sail tomorrow on the Celtic for England where I shall attend the meeting of the International Historical-Geographical Association; and then I spend a few weeks among the Norwegian glaciers, followed by a meeting of the International glacier Commission then about the end of August; and then I shall come home.

Perhaps another summer we may go out together.

My mother is in bed with a broken leg, so Mrs. Reid does not go to Europe with me.

I grieve over the loss of your wife and wish I could have known her and your children when they were still children.

My boy goes to Oxford next autumn; he is nineteen and Lois will be sixteen in September. I trust they may not be much older before they know you.

Mrs. Reid joins me in warm love to you.

I am faithfully your friend Harry Fielding Reid.
