My dear friend -

Only a word before
you sail, to wish you
a pleasant trip, and
that you will return
in safety from your
long journey, which
to me, seems a very
hazardous one for you to undertake. You probably know best, however,

ing you, ^[7] in imagination, tion, in your travels - were he here. Perhaps he will, from the other shore, for he dearly
loved you, and was
interested in all you
did. We are trying to settle up the estate -
and Frank has been here for some time trying to expedite matters,

and will be ^[2] happier
after you have accomplished it; for you have
so often talked about
it, that you will not be contented until you
have seen it. I shall hope to hear from
you from time to time,
telling me that all
is well with you. How my dear husband would have enjoyed follow -

Mrs
Sellers

Mrs
Sellers.

Thus far, ^{C47} he has not accomplished as much as he hoped to. He will return home soon,
and nothing more will
be done, until the
ten months required
me during my life or
widowhood. If I died

before Frank, it went to him, but if I survived Frank, the half was
mine during life, but
for me, and to know that I'm satisfied. Dear Al
did what ~~his~~ thought to review it ^{c73} for the press, but don't do so, unless you can conveniently.

You are so busy, and
you must rest before
you leave. Good-bye,
and God bless you
on your journey

Your friend
Ray H Sellers

Pasadena.

was best for ^{c63} me - My niece Miss Hancock is still with me, helping
me in her cheery way
to tide over these sad
days. She will remain
indefinitely with me,
were she not here, I could
not bear this sad
and lonely home -
I'm so glad you like
my brother's book - and
hope you will find time
