

1911-09-19

Letter from John Muir to [William] Colby, 1911 Sep 19.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [William] Colby, 1911 Sep 19." (1911). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6173.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6173>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Para, Brazil, Sep 19, 1911

Dear Mr Colby.

I hope you all had a good time this summer the usual Sierra Club luck. When I left New York Aug. 12th the Hitch Hiking looked comparatively safe as far as I could see, but the wicked whether down or up are never to be trusted, so we must keep on watching / praying / fighting / overcoming evil with good as we are able.

I've had a glorious time up the Amazon. In about a week from above date I hope to be on my way to Rio de Janeiro. Thence I intend going to Buenos Aires, sail up the Uruguay & La Plata, cross the Andes to Valparaiso & southward along the Araucarian forests, etc. I'm perhaps to South Africa to see its wonderful

flora etc, may be home
in the spring

My kindest regards to Mrs Colby & the great pair of boys
& to the Parsons;
& all the club you
see.

Faithfully Yours
John Muir

Para, Brasil, Sep. 19, 1911.

Dear Mr. Colby:

I hope you all had a good time this summer, the usual Sierra Club luck.

When I left New York August 12th the Hetch Hetchy looked comparatively safe as far as I could see. But the wicked, whether down or up, are never to be trusted, so we must keep on watching, praying, and fighting, overcoming evil with good, as we are able.

I've had a glorious time up the Amazon. In about a week from above date I hope to be on my way to Rio de Janeiro. Thence I intend going to Buenos Aires, sail up the Uruguay and La Plata, cross the Andes to Valpariso, and southward along the Arancarian forests, etc., then perhaps to South Africa to see its wonderful flora, etc. May be home in the spring.

My kindest regards to Mrs. Colby and the great pair of boys and to the Parsons, and all the Club you see.

Faithfully yours,

John Muir.