Dear Mr. Muir:

Are we not true to our teaching and our love for the pines and
running waters.

Walter, Marion and I are here together and are having a beautiful time. Do you know that granite when I walk or stand on it thrills me. Its solidity, color and rhythms.

We were two weeks on the large lake but had to come up to our old home the Glen. The flowers are beautiful. The larkspurs are very tall and the castillejas flaming.

Do you remember a Mr. Stewart of Fosalia President of the M. Whiting Club. He is here and remembered all of us very well.

We had a flower show that was very beautiful. One young boy brought in 92 varieties. We had baskets of tiger lilies.

We expect to stay here another week
and then we will see you as I intend staying around the Bay for a few weeks before going south.

I was so sorry you missed Mauna.
They left San Francisco very suddenly
and then the doctor ordered him to be

Mom-Tanis.

John had to leave us yesterday
to meet- Another for a fishing party on the Truckee.

It is terribly cold. The report even
but I have the exhibition of it.

Good-bye for a while,
sincerely yours
