

1912-03-06

Letter from Rachel Lyman Field to John Muir, 1912 Mar 6.

Rachel Lyman Field

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Field, Rachel Lyman, "Letter from Rachel Lyman Field to John Muir, 1912 Mar 6." (1912). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6226.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6226>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

steps you made for him. I am so glad you wrote that splendid
- id story.

I am making a collection of autographs and am so very anxious to have yours.
Would you be so very kind as to send it to me. Please believe I do not wish to cause you any trouble, but I should appreciate it so much.

Your friend and Stickeen's too.

Rachel Seymour Field

384 Union Street,
Springfield, Mass.,
March 6, 1912.

Dear Mr. Muir,

I want to tell you how very, very much I have enjoyed reading your story of "Stickeen".
My Aunt and I read it to-gether and I just love it. Was it really true? I love dogs and I am so sorry he disappeared didn't you ever hear of him again.

The other week I saw some moving pictures of great glaciers and ice walls and crevasses
and I could just fairly see you and Stickeen traveling along together, and I had great sympathy with him for not wanting to go down those awful ice

05157