Dear "John of Mountains,"

I hear you are back again, actually having withdrawn from the spell of your beloved auracharia (I don't know how to spell it).

Now if you go West without coming to see me in my little Swiss chalet out

05166

here in Pelham, I shall be sure you care for your millionaire friends more than you do for those who shared the wealth of the Grand Cañon &
'sacred' with you.

I am out here since mid-January, & now have a cent of of my own & all my belongings about me.

Mr. & Mrs. Burroughs came here last night on their return from Washington, for a week or so.

He will be 75 on next Wed. April 3. I am asking just a few to come out from N. Y. and great here. (It takes only 30 minutes from the Grand Central). Any time in the p.m. between 3 & 5 - I'm asking you.

Johnson to get on your hands if he can & pilot you here. Would you come? I'm not on that slate, there some other day soon, since you don't like to be tied to the calendar.

I want to know about your travelling. Sincerely yours,

Clara Barnes

Dear "John Of Mountains":

I hear you are back again, actually having withdrawn from the spell of your beloved auracharia (I don't know how to spell it). Now if you go West without coming to see me in my little Swiss chalet out here in Pelham, I shall be sure you care for your millionaire friends more than you do for those who shared the wealth of the Grand Canyon and Yosemite with you.

I am out here since mid-January, and now have a center of my own and all my belongings about me. Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs came here last night on their return from Washington, for a week or so. He will be 75 on next Wed., April 3. I am asking just a few to come out from N.Y. and greet him (it takes only 30 minutes from the Grand Central). Any time in the p.m. between 3 & 5. I'm asking Mr. Johnson to get on your trail if he can and pilot you here. Won't you come? If not, on that date, then some other day soon, since you don't like to be tire to the calendar.

I want to hear about your wanderings.

Sincerely yours,

Clara Barrus
