Original in possession of Mr. Merrill Moores

850 Madison Avenue,
New York,
April 12, 1912.

Dear Merril [1] . Charles, and all your great family:

You know how I sympathize with you in your bereavement. The sad news came this morning and stirred a thousand blessed, dearly cherished memories.- your mother's great kindness when I was in darkness, and her sisters and all you children when you were young - reading for me, bringing flowers and love into my dark room. Never in all my wanderings in all these years has anything in the least dimmed the love light of that blessed Indiana Moores-Merrill-Graydon lang syne.

God bless and comfort you.

John Muir.
