Martinez, May 10, 1912.

Dear Mr. Carruth:

In trying to clear my desk of a great talus of letters nearly a year high, I came to-day upon yours dated March 23, 1911, enclosing cards for Ina Coolbrith's book shower. Am sorry I missed the reception since fate has kept us apart for many a year. As to books, I can easily send the ones she wants, perhaps "My First Summer" and "Yosemite" just out. Another will probably be published this summer or fall--a first vol[ume] of autobiography called "My Boyhood and Youth".

I've just returned from a long trip through South America and Africa. Let me hear how you are all getting on.

Ever yours faithfully,

JOHN MUIR.
