

1912-05-10

Letter from John Muir to [William] Trelease, 1912 May 10.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [William] Trelease, 1912 May 10." (1912). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6272.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6272>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Martinez, California.
May 10, 1912

My dear Trelease:

I'm glad to learn you are now free to go your own flowery way while yet young and able. Happy man! burdened only with blessed good luck. May you live to be a hundred years young. Anyhow you will live forever in your works. I often think of our Alaska days nothing found in them has given greater pleasure than yourself.

I've just returned from a grand trip in South America & Africa.

Found lots of good botany & geology. Hoping to see you ere long I am with all good wishes

Ever faithfully Your friend
John Muir