Dear Mr. [unclear]

There is the second thick letter
I have forwarded
to you.

We speak of you often, and hope you keep well and are happy. Marion
came this morning
and she looks
quite blooming and cheerful.

As for me - I almost wrote when I discovered there was the picture of mine and not in the 30 minute
book! It could not have been the other volume you intended
them for, was it?

We are doing a little reforesting
in the garden
which I shall

insist on your approving. The days are so busy
I scarcely have time to draw
anything but the shortest sort of a wreath.

Are affectionately
yours

Katharine Hooker
