John Min Coy -
Dear Sir -

I take have each day and + then go to bed + refresh myself on Forests. by John Min I have tried to make proper use in the common things of life what I have both items of flims + trims, and trims, and letters, and musings, + notes + trims + kinds + flims + Lains + a + c. in that wonderful Forests. I have a copy of a engage piece, + another by Carl from the first hills of the Runners + pieces of forests + preserved flims + c.

adorn my cabinet of curiosities with lin oak acorns - moss - & mossy oak corked & red for inspiration Point -

I think John Bungho will never strut, he can't take in enough oxygen air to understand "Gloria" Fossett. I can't climb, it makes me dizzy but I can take deep breaths of inspiration.

Yours sincerely
