

1912-10-12

Letter from John Muir to [Henry Fairfield] Osborn, 1912 Oct 12.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [Henry Fairfield] Osborn, 1912 Oct 12." (1912). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6376.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6376>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Hollywood, Cal. Oct. 12, 1912

Dear Professor Osborn

I'm hurraing out here over your glorious glad news letter and sending such a flood of radium joy waves I'm sure you must feel them in New York. "All the Osborns splendidly well, especially Mrs. Osborn who is in better health and spirits than ever." All this after much good work done in Europe. Surely your good luck cup is overflowing. How I congratulate you let the joy waves tell, while I glory in the gladdest letter that ever crossed this Continent.

I start home this evening, stopping at Yosemite by the way for the conference on Park affairs.

We are all well. Am at work on Alaska

Yours with all my heart

John Muir

05284