very deep interest, as you well know.

How are you? I sincerely hope you are well, and hope that next time I get to California I may see you once again. You opened a new world of beautiful things to me, and I shall always

My dear Mr. Muir:-

I am thinking of you this morning - having just read the first part of your autobiography in the "Atlantic".

Please let me congratulate you most heartily - I am so glad that the wonderful story of your life is to be read at last!

I shall follow it with
