Take a little kiss
at Xmas time I go To Wonda's & Helen's & see all the little boys. With sincerest thanks & kind wishes for your Xmas time

Believe me
Yours Affly

Dear Cousin

We have received your kind letter
with the enclosed Money Order, it is indeed kind & mindful of you to cheer the poor of your native
town & also to remember

Mother & I at Christmas time. I am very sorry to say Mother is very feeble does not get out of bed now I have had to get a woman into the house instead of a young girl, I am so glad that I am
keeping afoot.
Susan Gilroy has come to-day for a few days on her way to Edinburgh.

I have not seen any of the Hays the Summer James
is not able to travel now & Mrs Hay did not come to Scotland.
You are always busy writing but I dare say you will
