How could I have been certain I had sent this letter back to you - I seem to remember so well having written you about it -

But it is rather late than lost; and I hope you won't think too badly of me -

I am still trying to pack our bag for Carmel!
I may in the end have to trim Jean's pine bough on the way from the station to the Cabin! How are you?

Charlotte,
