Dear Mr. Miner,

With this letter I am mailing you a paper with a full account of the death, of John G. Munnell. In looking through his desk I found a letter from you dated May 10, 1913, also a copy of your book, "My Boyhood & Youth." Which he received just a short time before his death. As there is a doubt to his answering your letter, and thanking you for the book; I am taking the liberty of doing so now.

Yours respectfully,

Mrs. James Manuel
