Dear sister Mary, Your New Years greeting arrived today and I gladly wish you Heaven's best blessings for 1914 & every other year of your life. You must find great pleasure in your painting & drawing. I'm now at work on my travels in Alaska which I hope to get off my hands this year; after which I hope to go ^{on} with other volumes of autobiography.
The first entitled "My Boyhood & Youth"
I suppose you have read.
Altogether I have published only 7 volumes though I have more than a score in mind. I suppose you have seen newspaper notices of my latest travels in Africa & South America. We are all pretty well.
Helen's address is (Mrs Buel A. Funk.
Daggett California
She has two fine boys. Wanda has three.
Come & see us.
Your affectionate brother John
