Jan. 23, 1914.

Berkeley, California.

Dear Mr Muir:

I read your interesting story of Stickein and yourself.

I liked your story very much.

I like to climb hills and mountains.
When I lived in Washington my Papa climbed Mount Rainier.

When he was going over the bridge the guards said he was too heavy but he was going anyway
so they tied him to a rock and left him there til they came back.

Yours truly, Eugenia Berkeley
