

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1914-03-28

Letter from Carrie B. Jump to John Muir, 1914 Mar 28.

Carrie B. Jump

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Jump, Carrie B., "Letter from Carrie B. Jump to John Muir, 1914 Mar 28." (1914). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6522.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6522>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

March 28 14

1

Dear Mr Muir,
May we ask the privilege of calling on you at your home the 2nd week in April when the girls will have vacation - They will consider an interview with the author of Stiecken the greatest blessing that has come to them in their short years.

I hope some day you will write of the "rude and mossy grove beech that overcanopies the glade"
the birch, the red of the soft maple

05729

2

the bare lamarack swamps as it breaks into its greens in spring - The glorious Mountain
Ash - The Arbutus, & Paticia Bloodroot + Partridge berry followed by the golden rod + Aster and the flaming Sumack, Ah, you could have the cunning to paint the picture of old Wisconsin's glories, and bring life + color to every blade and leaf; How our hearts would bound in sympathy with such a production!

If you are well and it is 05729

3

convenient, you will confer great pleasure on us by permitting us on any day arranged by you to come to see you -

Very Sincerely
Carrie B. Jump

3340 Fruitvale Ave

Oakland
Cal.

March 28-1914

05729