Dear Miss Kellogg,

I'm very sorry to hear Mr Scripps is so dangerously ill & fondly hope that the present kind weather may effect his recovery to good health. Please convey my sympathy to Mrs Kellogg.

I'm glad you are going to Yosemite & Tuolumne.

I wanted to send you my Yosemite book but find I've none left. Just get a copy from Vroman & tell him to charge it to my account.

I've been confined to my den for months with grippe but am getting better. I am hard at work on my Alaska travels & hope I may get it together ere long & take it to the mountains for final revision - perhaps to Yosemite where I may see you

Ever faithfully
Your friend
John Muir
