Dear Miss :

I'm homesick to see you. How are you getting on.

I hope you can come on to the great meetings of the Academy and Institute Nov. 18-20. There will be fine things. A member of the French Academy is coming to take part and to bring the formal greetings of that body. The President says it is his sincere desire to come. We have a fine literary programme, and there is to be a concert of music by members of the Institute for which I have raised the money $1000.

(I can raise money for anything or anybody except myself - and the Lord knows I need it this year).

Burrroughs speaks with solicitude of you - eager for news of you. I may get up to his Rosby N.Y. place by Sept
1. in the hope of meeting there his friend Henry Ford the automobile manufacturer and getting * him to be one of the ten founders of the Academy at $100,000 each.
I am putting in the summer at that work.

It is lovely here and the Atlantic Lent meeting to the Pacific!

Write me a line and believe me even my dear Miss, your language as appropriate friends,

R. H. Johnson

Dear J. B. Chapman who forgot to tell me that so hard is the Brinker Standard Union (he owns it) is going to California. If you like to see him I'll give him a card to go. I don't want to lose you.
