Darling Helen I'm always so glad you are all by little keeping well through this scorching weather.

I sent you more peaches our box also to the good judge Van Dyke which I hope arrived in good order.

Did you see Mrs Hooker before you left the Hospital?

I'll send a box of peaches to your doctor & nurse if you will give me their names

I wish you could see the home hill now. It looks fine after my care of it.

Ever your devoted father & friend
John Minor
