No. 650 Bush St.

San Francisco, August 13/14

My dear Mr. Muir:

The writer has only recently been able to afford a copy of your beautiful descriptions of our National Parks but had read and re-read the volume belonging to a friend

Because of my great pleasure in the book, flowers, and all <sup>(33)</sup> living things as is the writer, I am going to look forward to a visit to you during the coming spring.

When I can also see your wild flowers.

With assurance of my regards, believe me,

Very faintly yours,
(Miss) J. N. Raphael.

(23)
I am asking the privilege of having it autographed by you, which would endear it still further to me.

I am taking the liberty of anticipating your kind consent and forwarding copy with stamps for its return and my thanks for your courtesy.

As I would esteem it a deep pleasure to take the hand of one who is as great a lover of trees and
