Darling Helen: Let me know when you want more grapes or quinces. I hope the plants arrived in good order. You must give them lots of water & shelter from sand blasts. I could not find a single rooted Banksia or Cherokee, but Wanda thinks they might grow from cuttings. The rooted yellow roses are sure to do well.

Wanda was astonished at the weight of baby Buel. said Stutzel did not weigh as much at ten months. Even you devoted Father & friend
