My Dear Sister Louie

Yesterday I heard of Helen's illness and feel so sorry. I cannot bear to think of her as sick. I sympathize with you too for I know how anxious you will be until you see her well again. I hope you will send me a few words so that I may hear of her improvement.

Anna and I have had bad colds, and Marynie was sick for a few days but all are usually well again. We will all need to keep well, as the nearest Doctor is twelve miles distant. I have been glad to hear of John in his wanderings by Marynie, and so glad to know that he is keeping well. Give my love to Helen, and much to yourself. Sarah W. Galloway.
