I have still some sprigs and leaves I gathered at your place, also a bunch of pine needles from the Yo-Semite that John gave me and a few other specimens in a vase made from a gourd that grew on our farm, it stands in my bedroom, and though brown and old I have not felt that I could throw them away yet, when tempted to do so I just blow the dust away and put them back.

in with his eyes sparkling saying bowers, bowers, (his name for flowers), he was so delighted seeing them in the yard.

Mary Jane is a dear wee girl she will be nearly five months old, she will sit for hours playing and happy and is growing so nicely.

I went out to their home in July and staid three days. The country looked better than I expected after so much dry weather, but it has
I fear the crops will not turn out very well generally. the fruit is a failure on account of frosts in the spring

The Portuguese people who visited with you all in the spring were delighted with the country and the Valley especially. I suppose you will know that Mr & Mrs Foster also their daughter have settled at Los Angeles.
Mrs Foster is a sister of my husband. I hope she may be able to visit you some time. I am sure you would like her. we will miss her very much here.

Mother had a letter from
and we were glad to hear of you. Each day I pray that the blessing of the Lord may rest upon you all. Very affectionately Sarah M. Galloway.
