

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

---

1894-03-21

Letter from John Muir to [Robert Underwood] Johnson, 1894 Mar 21.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [Robert Underwood] Johnson, 1894 Mar 21." (1894). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6830.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6830>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Martinez, March 21, 1894,

My dear Mr Johnson.

I'm sorry to learn through the notice you sent me that Mr Osborne is dead. Never shall I forget the day spent at their beautiful home on the Hudson hills into which you led me. Please convey to Mrs. Osborne my kindest remembrances when next you see her.

I spent two pleasant days a week or two ago with Sargent & Canby They spent a night at our house and I drove them through the Pecheco and an Ignacio Valleys in search of trees This of course brought back the grand days we spent at Brookline

Where is Tesla? Is he coming to California? Mrs Muir is always inquiring about him, push him here if you can & John Bouroughs [sic].

No chance I suppose of seeing you here this summer, we are just aching to show our appreciation of your wonderous goodness to me last year.

How is Alaska coming on? You have not told me whether you liked the changes I made in the articles.

I have written five new chapters for the book, & believe I'll now just stop though much more demands addmit[ance].

Ever truly your friend

John Muir