

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1894-04-21

Letter from [Ann Gilrye Muir] Mother to John Muir, 1894 Apr 21.

Ann Gilrye Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Ann Gilrye, "Letter from [Ann Gilrye Muir] Mother to John Muir, 1894 Apr 21." (1894). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6840.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6840>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

I would be much pleased to have your family make us folk a visit. I think we would all enjoy a visit very much and probably they would

I hope some one will write soon affectionately

Mother

Portage April 21st 1894

Dear John

I write to congratulate you on this your birthday wishing you and all your household much happiness

I received your letter of April 3rd telling us, you had finished your first book, and had five other books to write. I am afraid that such close and long application to writing will affect your health

01802

We are all well as usual here our little Bernice has not been as well as usual for a few days but is now getting well we think Joanna was quite anxious about her indeed we all were for some days

The Photo you sent me of one of the Slays of Liverpool do you think he looks like it I can remember both his Father and Mother and especially his Brother John who died long ago but none of them looked the least like that Photo

You now have a very large contingent of Portage people settled quite near you I expect they all enjoy the change of climate

I hope Margt and all of her family are well, also David and his folks

Sarah and Annie and Joanna all unite in kindest regards to you and all the friends in Gal