Mr. John Muir;

Dear sir;

I hoped to see you last evening to ask of you in person what I now propose to ask by letter.

There is to be a "Club evening" at the University Club on the 26th. Would it be possible for you to read a paper then on such topic as you please? I know it is a great favor to ask, but perhaps you have something laid away which would serve the purpose with slight trouble to yourself.

I can assure you that it would afford the greatest gratifi-
