My dear Muir:-

Are you not going to give us some more material about the Muir Glacier so that we may not have the play of "Hamlet" with Hamlet left out?

You have probably seen Mr. Drake and his artist companion of the same name. We hope after their return to have some more illustrative material ^{for your article} and to push it along into print.

I am supporting Sargent's plan in the ^{and you see from inclosure} Century and sent you a circular invitation to write a few words about it for a Symposium.

Burrage says it is too soon to say whether he can come next summer or not, but I'll keep at him this winter.

With kind regards to Mrs. Muir,
Yours faithfully,

R. U. J.
