

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1894-10-22

Letter from Olive Thorne Miller to John Muir, [1894 ?] Oct 22.

Olive Thorne Miller

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Miller, Olive Thorne, "Letter from Olive Thorne Miller to John Muir, [1894 ?] Oct 22." (1894). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6902.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6902>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[43]

are not generally our burden with this world's goods

With thanks for your cordial greeting

I am sincerely yours

Olive Thorne Miller

[17]

628 Hancock Street,
Brooklyn, N.Y.

Oct 22nd

My dear Mr Muir:

I was very glad to receive your letter of the 14th last evening. I can hardly credit your statement that writing is a "slow and awkward, unmaternal business" certainly I can't believe that you chapters on the 01860

Wassals with orange
and the squirrel
you immortalized
in your book, more hand writing. They seem like the impet-uous outbreak of a lover full of love
for them.

I shall be very glad to call on you when I reach San F. — if I go, as I now fully expect to, and — as I believe I told you, I expect to reach San F. near the end of March.

Thanks for the name of a naturalist in Phoenix. I shall probably be very glad to meet him up

I can't give exact dates yet, for I hope to make a few engagements to lecture in California — to keep out the exchequer for me somewhat you know