

1894-11-05

Letter from John Muir to [Charles Sprague] Sargent, 1894 Nov 5.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [Charles Sprague] Sargent, 1894 Nov 5." (1894). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6910.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6910>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Martinez, Cal

Nov. 5, 1894

My dear Sargent

The little book
is now in the stores.

How are you getting on with the 7th Vol. of your grand book.

You are a most happy & Heaven-blessed giant of a man in being blessed with the work of such a book. I envy you

Your Celestial-turpentine tail. I am barren this year, have been nowhere
-pattered away the summer

with the proof sheets of the book. When will you be ready for the Himalaya or Caucasus
I am ready for either range. but for China
No. I have the Colorado Canyon in mind & will take a saunter in it some day.

I send you with this a box of Walnuts. They are all fresh from the tree.

Remember me to your family and believe me ever Yours cordially John Muir