Marliney Cal. Dec. 5, 1894

Dear Sellers Three.

We are glad to learn that you are coming to California this winter because it will surely be good for you, & because we will have the pleasure of seeing you.
Don't fail to let us know when you arrive, & don't linger long in San Francisco before coming to our little

Valley. We are sorry Col. to hear that you have been sick & glad that you are better.

Make haste to this best side of the Continent.

I see wild. Color Keith about once a week, & at such times we seldom fail to look back & stir up our pleasant memories of the days spent at your fine home on Michigan Avenue which to both of us was a pleasant half my summer & home between California & the confederate trenches and summers of Europe.

Tell Mrs. Sellers that I want her to say how many copies of my book she wants for her friends for the fine photographs she so kindly & carefully sent me. With best wishes from us all & hoping to see you soon I am, probably, your Sincerely,
